

5th Grade Social Studies Study Guide
WWI & Roaring 1920's

Name: _____

Vocabulary

Write the definition of each term and provide an example or picture.

Term	Description	Name, country, or person involved
Assassinate/Assassination
Allied Powers
19 th amendment
Central Powers
Treaty of Versailles
Lusitania
Fourteen Points
Militarism
Imperialism
Nationalism
Alliances
Isolationism
League of Nations

Specialization
----------------	--	--

1920's

Match the person with their cultural impact.

Bonus: Create a drawing that matches the person or their contribution.

Louis Armstrong

Created the first assembly line to produce cars—specifically Model Ts

Langston Hughes

Trumpet player who rose from poverty to prominence as jazz musician

Babe Ruth

First man to fly across the Atlantic Ocean in an airplane; increased economic interest

Henry Ford

Writer during the Harlem Renaissance; Poems shared the African American experience.

Charles Lindberg

White baseball player with numerous homeruns; citizens became excited more about baseball watching him play.

Cause and Effect

There is more than one way to complete the charts.

Fill in the cause-and-effect chart for the assassination of Franz Ferdinand.

Fill in the case-and-effect chart for the sinking of the Lusitania & Zimmermann telegram.

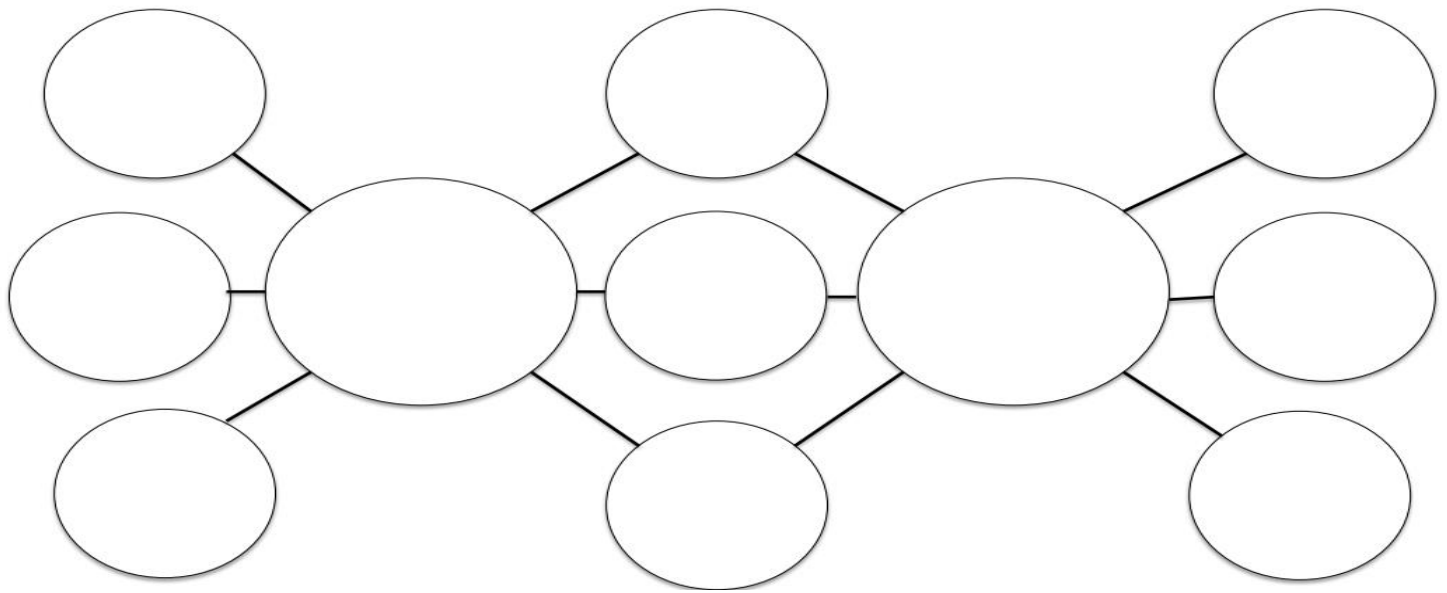

Draw an Assembly Line to make cars.

(Include at least 4 steps and explain how this uses specialization)

--

Compare & Contrast Central Powers and Allied Powers of WWI using the graphic organizer below. Be sure to include definitions, countries, strengths, and motivations.

List or Draw 3 ways citizens supported soldiers abroad in the war while at home:

1)

2)

3)

Amendments:

Which amendment gave women the right to vote? _____

Which amendment started prohibition? _____

When government or companies try to shape the ideas people think, it is called...

Prophets

Propaganda

Pamphlets

Militarism